Day 05:

Port Blair – Baratang day visit (closed on every Monday's)

Packed Breakfast at Hotel

Early morning start at 0400 hrs from your hotel to proceed towards Baratang. Reach the check post of the tribal reserve at Jirkatang in time to catch the 0600am convoy to Middle Strait (arrival 0800). Your vehicle will remain on South Andaman, while you cross over to Baratang by ferry (departures every 30mins, duration: 15 mins). From Baratang Jetty at South Creek, take a boat ride to the limestone caves (30-45mins) and explore the limestone caves, then return to the Jetty. After that, board a NAC jeep to drive towards the mud volcano (20 mins). The road is poor, and vehicles do not have access all the way. Walk the final kilometer to see the mud bubbling out of the ground. Note: if it is especially rainy, you may not have access at all as it is hard to walk in the slush and vehicle access is also limited. The order of activities (volcano/cave) may be interchanged. Return to Port Blair on the same route of approach.

Note that it is illegal to indulge in tribal tourism and taking photos or interacting with any Jarawa if you chance upon them in the tribal reserve is punishable under law. If your purpose of visit is tribal tourism, we will not assist you and we strongly suggest you do not go.
